

Extreme Dot-to-Dot Design

Instructions: Complete the dot-to-dot above by finding the pairs of dots identified by coordinates below and drawing a line between each, while following these rules:

1. Draw the lines in the order given in the list below
2. Using a ruler, start drawing from the first coordinate toward the second coordinate
3. Stop drawing whenever the line you are drawing intersects a line you have drawn previously
4. Whenever you stop a line early, write the letter from the list below at that position in the grid

Dots to connect:

When you are finished, read the letters in the grid from left-to-right and from top-to-bottom to find the answer to this riddle:

If you stress me at first then I'll knock you about,
So then stress me at last when you want to pig out.
