

A Drawing for You

Did I ever tell you about the time my family went to Hidden Springs Ranch? That place really lives up to its name—just look at how many objects are hidden in the drawing above! After you find all the hidden objects there should be six remaining. Read the first letter of each to form a six-letter word for something you might find on a ranch: — — — — —

